JULY 2019 ISSUE

2019 Best of the Best

Do you know those people in your life who are constantly telling you that you need to try this or that, or ask if you've visited here or there yet? Well, we are those people.

by By Matt Cosentino, Liz Hunter, Lauren Kubiak, Sarahjane Massaud, Peter Proko and Julie Shannon; Select photography by Alison Dunlap

You would think after all this time that we would run out of recommendations by now, but nothing could be further from the truth. As evidence, we spent the past year seeking out the Best of the Best in South Jersey, including the most amazing food, the finest shops, the must-visit salons and more to be able to bring this celebratory list to you. And just in case you don't want to take our word for it, we've also included readers' choices, making this comprehensive list full of fan favorites and new discoveries.

FOOD & DRINK

Bloody Mary | Oaklyn Manor Bar & Grill in Oaklyn

Hangovers may have finally met their match. This neighborhood bar has blended two classic remedies (greasy food and hair of the dog) into one bloody (good) mary, featuring spicy tomato juices infused with Tonewood Porter steak sauce, Tonewood Fuego hot sauce and bacon jam—all made in-house—plus an Angus beef slider with crispy bacon, fried pickle chips and tater tots. It almost makes the previous night's antics worth it—almost.

Mexican Street Corn | Central Taco and Tequila in Haddon Township

Who knew a simple appetizer would have coworkers fighting over the last bite? We didn't, until we dug into this bowl of warm corn kernels sautéed in jalapeño and epazote and coated in creamy mayonnaise, crumbled cotija cheese and sprinkled with chili seasoning—all creating a perfectly flavorful pop in your mouth. When paired with their crispy tortilla chips, the combination is simply dangerous.

Hot Dogs | MoonDog Grill in Moorestown

The hot dog is one of America's iconic foods, yet it never gets the same appreciation as a burger. Thankfully, the owners of this establishment are giving hot dogs their due; making them more than a kids' menu item and dressing them up with some seriously mature toppings. Beginning with a deep-fried, all-beef Sabrett dog as the base, diners can load up on creative additions like baked beans and Fritos, fried eggs and bacon, or sticky rice and mango.

Café | Breaking Grounds Coffee and Café in Mount Holly

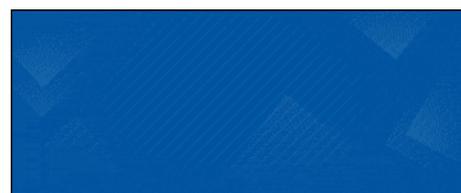

Situated in the eclectic and creative haven of Mill Race Village, this café is serving up fresh-roasted coffee, gourmet hot chocolate, a full menu of espresso, fruit smoothies and nutritious meals that range from bagels and veggie burgers to panini. In addition to filling stomachs, this café's mission is also filling hearts as it provides employment opportunities for those with developmental disabilities.

Chili | Oink and Moo BBQ

Our insides warm up every time we have a spoonful of Oink and Moo's OMQ chili and our bellies are full thanks to the generous amount of juicy brisket and tender pulled pork in each bowl. It's served with spicy or sweet honey cornbread and makes for a hearty meal to enjoy any time of year.

Wings | Whole Hog Café in Cherry Hill and Medford

We know Remodeling

While this barbecue joint's namesake pork dishes may get top billing on the menu, the wings deserve their own time in the spotlight. These meaty wings are smoked until perfectly tender then flash-fried to crisp up the skin, before being tossed in your choice of signature sauce—try their competition sauce for a spicy tang—or go au naturale with the dry rub. We guarantee you'll be back for an encore performance.

Pickle Sandwiches | Elsie's in Haddon Township

Featured on Good Morning America, Today Show, countless websites and even your mom's Instagram, this tiny deli became an overnight sensation for their sandwiches served on pickles. More than just a low-carb alternative, these handhelds come fully loaded with classic deli meats and cheeses, as well as veg-friendly falafel and hummus. Each bite is a briny delight, and when chased with a swig of pickle juice (on tap), it's easy to see why people from as far as Canada are making the trek.

Waffles | Dan's Waffles Food Truck in Pennsauken

The culinary creativity coming out of the limited space afforded by food trucks never ceases to amaze us. Here, handcrafted waffles are made in the Belgian Liege style, with the addition of Dan's homemade vanilla extract, providing a pillowy base for indulgent toppings like buttermilk fried chicken and sage sausage gravy or bananas foster with a rum caramel sauce. Is it possible to stalk a food truck? Asking for a friend.

Ice Cream | Maple Shade Custard Stand in Maple Shade

The lights at this nostalgic "drive-in" are on all year long, but during the summer, the line is deep as customers wait for a taste of this creamy soft serve. We don't mind though, because we need the extra time to decide our order. Do we go classic twist on a waffle cone with jimmies or flurry with any choice of candy, brownie or cookies? No matter what, it's going to be worth the wait.

Specialty Cocktails | Brickwall Tavern and Dining Room in Burlington

Situated under the city's historic clock tower—restored by the owners—is this funky spot that's a little bit rustic and a little bit retro, so it's only fitting that their list of specialty cocktails seems like a step back in time. Carefully crafted choices include Gold Rush with Bulleit bourbon, honey-thyme syrup and lemon juice or French 75 with Barr Hill gin, champagne, simple syrup and lemon juice. When the clock strikes 5, you know where to find us.

Specialty Food Market | Valente's Italian Specialties in Haddonfield

After years of building a following at local farmers markets, the family-run Valente's opened a brick-and-mortar location in the heart of downtown Haddonfield. Drawing on Old World recipes and techniques, with ingredients sourced from local farms and vendors, this market offers homemade pastas, sauces, and even fresh ricotta and mozzarella, to elevate any dish we prepare at home. Along with their takeout family meals, sandwiches and loaves of bread baked daily, we've got plenty of excuses not to cook tonight.

Water Ice | Primo Water Ice in Westmont

As appealing as the affordable prices and family-friendly vibe are, the real reason why generations of locals have flocked to Primo is the lure of refreshing, homemade water ice on a hot summer day, with flavors ranging from traditional (cherry and lemon) to outside-the-box (Oreo-dough and mint chocolate chip). Renowned author Mitch Albom, a regular visitor when he was growing up in South Jersey, loved the treat so much that he teamed up with Primo to open a water ice shop in Detroit.

Candy Store | Rocket Fizz in Marlton

Five out of five dentists might not approve, but those of us with a sweet tooth just can't resist a trip to this old-school candy shop. Customers are encouraged to fill up a bag—for a set price, no weighing here—with goodies like Smarties, Swedish fish and caramels. Or they can choose from a wide range of chocolate bars and hard candies, from Kinder Joys to king-sized Kit Kats and everything in between.

Stromboli | Aversa's Bakery in Washington Township

Township—at it is affectionately known by residents—has long had a heavy Italian influence, but the crispy exterior and gooey insides of the Stromboli at Aversa's are loved by all, regardless of ancestry. Varieties include the standard pepperoni and cheese or steak and cheese as well as spinach and ricotta, roast pork and provolone and more. Aversa's also has two locations down the Shore to satisfy cravings at the beach.

Soup | The Olde World Bakery & Café in Mount Holly

Although well-known for its artisan breads and pastries baked in a brick oven, The Olde World Bakery & Café also has a full menu with pasta dishes, pizza and a rotating list of homemade soups focusing on the freshest, farm-to-table ingredients. We're partial to the cream of potato and bacon, but the seafood bisque, French onion and all of the other offerings hit the spot as well.

Sausage Sandwich | Botto's Italian Line Market in Swedesboro

Abe Froman might be the sausage king of Chicago, but there's no question who sits on the throne in South Jersey. The Botto family has been famous for their flavors of Italian sweet and hot sausage since the 1960s, and this sandwich continues to be a hit at the market that can be found right next to their award-winning restaurant. It comes with broccoli rabe and sharp provolone on a seeded or non-seeded baguette roll.

Garlic Knots | Pizza Luigi Fresca in Marlton

These aerated pockets of twisted dough are easily devoured so you may want to order a few extra if you're with a crowd. Covered in garlic, cheese and fresh herbs, they are tasty enough on their own without the accompanying dipping sauce.

Brewery | Kelly Green Brewing in Pitman

This pint-sized (see what we did there) brewery will soon be headed to a new location in town, and it's only right it gets some bigger digs because this place has outgrown the competition in recent months. With their mix of traditional styles and fan-favorite IPAs, the brewery has really been humming since the introduction of its "Jelly" series of funky, fruited sour ales that have cemented their place in the local craft beer landscape.

Tap List | The Mile in Runnemede

Picking up where its predecessor The Irish Mile left off after shuttering its doors in Haddon Township, this wrap-around bar specializes in bringing some of the most coveted craft beer to their 36 tap lines. Expect to find all the local usual suspects as well as other standouts that attract beer geeks from near and far.

Indian Takeout | Tiffin in Cherry Hill

When we're craving a little Indian food at home, Tiffin is our go-to spot without question. Everything from the onion bhaji to the lamb biryani oozes flavor and the aromas are further alluring. They'll tone down the spice to a level you deem suitable, just don't forget an order of the garlic naan.

Bagels | Township Hot Bagels in Washington Township

You'll regularly find folks lined up patiently waiting their turn to sink their teeth into these bagels that find that harmonious balance between being slightly spongy on the inside while also having the right amount of chew and texture on the outside. Whether ordering up a breakfast sandwich or simply adding one of the homemade spreads, this place never disappoints.

Small Plates | Cinder Bar in East Greenwich

Appetizers are kind of like the eye into the soul of a restaurant. If you know you have a good appetizer, the entrées are sure to follow, and Cinder Bar offers several (too good to choose just one) options. These plates are also perfect to share, so you can order your favorites, and try something new at this Prohibition-inspired spot.

Stuffed Doughnuts | Haddonfield Doughnut Co. in Haddonfield

You've never had a stuffed doughnut until you've made your way to Haddonfield Doughnut Company's counter. We like to think you can't go wrong with any option, but we particularly enjoy the Strawberry Shortcake, which is a vanilla doughnut dipped in strawberry glaze, filled with vanilla buttercream and topped with strawberry filling.

Nachos | Oasis Mexican Grill in Collingswood

It's no question why Oasis labels their nachos "Nachos Festival" with the amount of ingredients piled on the plate. Tortilla chips are topped with black beans, jalapeños, tomatoes, sour cream, fresh cheese and your choice of Mexican chorizo, grilled chicken or beef.

Ramen | Rayaki in Cherry Hill

Rayaki serves authentic, quality cuisines in a Japanese-inspired atmosphere. The restaurant offers several options when it comes to ramen, but a popular selection is the Black Garlic Ramen, which contains marinated pork, bamboo, kikuage mushrooms, red ginger, fish cake, scallions, black garlic oil, pork soup base and a seasoned egg.

Sticky Buns | McMillan's Bakery in Haddon Township

The options are endless at this bakery, which dates back 80 years, from cookies to doughnuts, but we suggest you try the favored sticky buns, which are topped with your choice of almonds or raisins. The buns are light, fluffy and most importantly, moist as no one wants to chip a tooth on a rock hard bun.

Cannoli | Gelato Dolceria in Haddonfield

This shop offers authentic tastes of some of Italy's sweetest concoctions, including its sweet and creamy ricotta-filled cannolis ideally finished with a flurry of moist chocolate chips and a dusting of powdered sugar.

Brownies | Sweet T's Bakeshop in Haddonfield

We all get that craving for chocolate every once in a while, maybe a few times a week—who are we kidding, it's more often than that! Sweet T's Bakeshop knows the way to our inner chocolate lover. Brownies are all fudge-y and rich, made with real chocolate and flavors range from chocolate chip to rocky road and even chocolate mint cheesecake.

Cupcakes | Gallo's Bakery in Mount Laurel

Whether it's for a first birthday party, a 50th birthday or just because you were passing by, cupcakes from Gallo's are a must. There are almost too many gourmet flavors to name: Boston cream, apple cinnamon, raspberry, orange creamsicle, strawberry shortcake and more. All topped with the lightest buttercream icing your taste buds will ever touch.

Cakes | Sweet Eats Bakery in Marlton and Voorhees

There's a reason Sweet Eats Bakery has been around for over 30 years and built a great reputation in the South Jersey area and beyond, and for us—it's their cakes. Each bite is more luscious and moist than the last, with melt-in-your-mouth buttercream icing and almost 30 unique flavor fillings to choose from, like Raspberry Cream and Chocolate Chip Cookie Dough (our favorites) or Caramel Apple Crunch and Peach Schnapps.

Sandwich Cookies | Cake Stand Bakery in Voorhees

These aren't your ordinary chocolate chip sandwich cookies. But then again, Cake Stand Bakery isn't your ordinary bakery. Owner Holly Aducat and her staff take these fan favorites to another level with unique, weekly rotating flavorful combinations like Red Velvet Nutella Cookies filled with vanilla buttercream and Nutella, and Golden Oreo Sugar Cookies filled with Golden Oreo buttercream and caramel.

Tiramisu | Miel Patisserie, Cherry Hill

Miel Patisserie is the cream of the crop when it comes to pastries and desserts, and their tiramisu stands above the rest. Made with espresso laced ladyfingers, creamy white chocolate mascarpone mousse, Bailey's Irish Cream and cocoa powder, it's a light and satisfying dessert that will have you coming back for more. We recommend buying the full cake instead of individual serving, because one serving is never enough.

Baklava | Norma's in Cherry Hill

Baklava is one of those desserts that maybe doesn't always come to mind right away, but when it's placed in front of you, the heavens open up. That's how we feel every time we treat ourselves to Norma's baklava. Layers of filo dough are stuffed with crushed walnuts or Turkish pistachios and drizzled with a sweet but subtle rose water syrup that's less sticky than honey and more flavorful than your average baklava.

Sunday Spaghetti | Severino Pasta in Westmont

Let's be honest—when Sunday night rolls around, grocery shopping and cooking dinner is the last thing you want to after a busy weekend. Severino Pasta has got you covered with their Sunday dinner package—also available on Saturdays—which comes with one pound of fresh-cut spaghetti, six homemade meatballs, one quart of their homemade sauce, a loaf of bread and a salad to feed your hungry family for just $25.

Acai Bowls | Playa Bowls in Cherry Hill

When you taste one of Playa Bowls's refreshing acai bowls—also known as smoothie bowls—you'll feel as if you've been transformed to a tropical island. They have a wide variety to choose from, and our go-to is the Nutella bowl—acai topped with granola, banana, strawberry, coconut flakes and Nutella drizzle on top for a sweet finish.

Avocado Toast | Heartbeet Kitchen in Westmont

Avocado toast is becoming a staple item on quite a few menus, but it's been on Heartbeet Kitchen's menu since they opened in 2015 and still tastes as good, if not better as it did then. Avocado is spread over two thick slices of toast with tomato, a generous heaping of arugula and a delicious lemon garlic aioli drizzled on top. It's served with an orange tahini kale salad that makes for quite the nice partner on the plate.

Pork Chop | El Mariachi San Lucas in Voorhees

Come hungry to El Mariachi and you'll leave happy and completely satisfied—just as we do after we have the Mariachi Pork Chop. An eight-ounce juicy, French-cut pork chop is topped with sautéed Honeycrisp apples in a mouthwatering, spicy chipotle demi-glace. The sweetness from the apples and spiciness from the sauce marries together in perfect harmony to make this one of the best entrées we've had in recent memory.

Tacos | La Cita Authentic Mexican Restaurant in Cherry Hill

Authentic Mexican is in their name and La Cita holds true to that with every dish that comes out of their kitchen. But nothing makes us happier than their tacos, especially the pastor—pork drenched in achiote sauce with pineapple, and barbacoa—melt-in-your-mouth lamb. Each comes on a flour tortilla with cilantro and raw onions. No frills or crazy ingredients; just simple, traditional tacos that are worth the wait at this popular establishment.

Milkshakes | Latteria in Swedesboro

We love Latteria for their super delicious ice cream that comes in more than 200 inventive varieties, ensuring there's always something new each day. But when we found out that you could get any of their eye-popping flavors spun into a milkshake, our hearts melted like two scoops in a sugar cone on a hot summer's day.

Barbecue | Lumpy's BBQ in Blackwood

This unassuming spot serves up some of the most mouthwatering barbecue we've ever tasted. The ribs are standout—especially the smoky, sweet dry rub variety—and other highlights include the wonderful burnt ends, the pulled chicken and succulent brisket that would put a smile on the face of any discerning pitmaster.

Pretzel Sandwich | Peter and Son's in Glassboro

This Philly-inspired sandwich shop just off Rowan's campus combined two of the city's most beloved foods to create one of the most buzzed about menu items in South Jersey—the cheesesteak pretzel. Sliced ribeye with your choice of cheese is wedged in between a halved soft pretzel. Go ahead, let that sink in for a minute.

Empanadas | Maria's Restaurante in Berlin

Made to order and served piping hot out of the kitchen, these handheld delights show that street food doesn't have to be run of the mill. The crispy, flaky pastry exterior blends with the well-seasoned beef for a harmonious bite that tantalizes the taste buds.

Gyro | Tabboulee in Cherry Hill

Not only does this place serve up tremendous traditional gyros with your choice of shaved lamb (our favorite) or chicken tikka, but they also offer a variety of other "gyrophoric" sandwiches that incorporate additional ingredients like sautéed onions and peppers or a tamarind chutney. Whatever you wind up choosing, make sure to get the spicy tzatziki on top.

Cream Puffs | Chloe's Crème Puffs in Pitman

Light, airy and overflowing with delectable cream filling, these puffs can be dangerous to anyone with an overly sweet tooth, especially when you consider that the flavors rotate weekly. So not only will you find familiar favorites like vanilla and chocolate, but you're also bound to encounter something new like salted caramel or apple pie.

Fried Chicken | Treesy's Soul Food Café in Washington Township

Great soul food is made with love and at Treesy's they pour their heart into every batch of their unmatched fried chicken. The perfectly seasoned skin is audibly crunchy and dances with flavor as you bite into the tender meat inside that is so moist, it nearly glistens. It's a true taste of the South, right here in South Jersey.

Milk Tea | Kung Fu Tea in Cherry Hill

Sure, you've mastered bubble tea, but what do you know about milk tea? If the answer is very little, this is the place to become initiated—and hooked. Start with the KF Milk Tea, a subtle introduction made with black tea and non-dairy milk that's perfect for those who don't care for the overpowering taste of regular tea, before graduating to other choices like coconut or winter melon.

Babka | L&M Bakery in Delran

A bit of a lost art form, the fine folks at L&M keep tradition alive with their stellar iterations of this sweet treat. You'll find the popular choices like chocolate and poppy seed—both of which are dynamite—but step outside your comfort zone a bit and reward yourself with a taste of the apricot and cheese or the always-tempting peanut butter cup.

Crab Dip | Kid Rip's Tap & Tavern in Runnemede

A pleasurable mix of lump and jumbo lump crab meat topped with a Parmesan gratin helps make this shareable dish more substantial than your average bar fare. Creamy, gooey and perfect for scooping onto the accompanying toasted baguettes, this one is always a crowd pleaser.

Gelato | Classic Cake in Cherry Hill

Already well known for their array of cakes, cookies and chocolates, the sweet scientists over at Classic Cake also know a thing or two about quality handcrafted gelato. Silky smooth with intense taste and available in a dizzying array of vibrant colors and tempting flavors, do yourself a favor and order up a couple varieties and grab the nearest spoon.

BLT | K&A Bagel Café in Cherry Hill

The "pepped up" BLT at K&A had us rubbing our sleepy eyes one early morning to make sure we weren't seeing things. It turns out this dreamy sandwich is indeed real. Your choice of bagel is filled with the rudimentary bacon, lettuce and tomato and finished with a pesto mayo, thinly sliced pepperoni, melted provolone and a touch of balsamic.

Breakfast Sandwiches | Orange Blossom Café in Riverton

It's easy to rise and dine at this inviting eatery along Broad Street thanks to the many thoughtful options presented on the menu. Forget your usual bacon, egg and cheese order and go for something a little more fulfilling like scrambled eggs with sundried tomato, pesto, creamy goat cheese served up on homemade bread.

Cinnamon Rolls | Sunflour Bakeshop in Mount Laurel

It's hard to put into words just how delightful these pastries truly are. Where do you start? The enticing homemade cinnamon filling that adds the perfect spice notes? The wonderful consistency of sweetness found in the dough? The large dollop of rich cream cheese frosting topping everything off? Well, actually that was easier than we thought.
